Numb. 434.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From March 31. to April 7. 1737.

LONDON.

To the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

MY LORDS,

WE have conſidered the humble Petitions of the Preſident and Council, the Speaker, and ſeveral Members of the Aſſembly of his Majeſty's Province of New-Jerſey, of the Grand Jury of the ſaid Province, and Mr Richard Patridge, Agent for New-Jerſey; together with two other Papers annexed to the laſt mentioned Petition, all of them referred to us by your Lordſhips on the 24th Day of May laſt, humbly praying, for the Reaſons contained, that when his Majeſty ſhall nominate a Governor for the Province of New-York, the Province of New-Jerſey may not be included in his Commiſſion, but that his Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed to appoint a ſeparate Governor for the ſaid Province of New-Jerſey.

We have conſidered the Reaſons given by the Petitioners for this Separation, and upon the beſt Information we have been able to procure, we take leave to acquaint your Lordſhips, that the Allegations of the ſeveral Petitions appear to be of great Conſequence; and we cannot doubt but that a ſeparate Governor, whom the Province is willing to ſupport, would be a Means to give a quicker Diſpatch to their publick Affairs, to encreaſe their Trade and Number of People, and very much advance the Intereſt of the Province.

Wherefore we are humbly of Opinion, that His Majeſty may be graciouſly pleaſed to comply with the Prayer of theſe Petitions. We are,

My Lords,
Your Lordſhips
Moſt obedient, and
Moſt humble Servants,

Whitehall, Aug. 5. 1736.

Manooth, Dec. 19. Laſt Week Andrew Newtown, a Man of 107 Years of Age, Tenant to the Right Hon. Robert Earl of Kildare, and living on his Lands of Ballycurraghan, was married to a Girl of 18. Mr. Newton was a Soldier in the Army of Oliver Cromwell, and retains moſt of his Senſes; his Stomach rather increaſes than leſſens by his Age.

London, Dec. 20. The Image of the Child, which her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange was delivered of at the Hague, has been ſent over to her Majeſty in Wax-Work.

Dec, 30. From Vienna they write, that on the 18th Inſtant all Things were finally agreed on there between the Imperial Court and the Courts of France and Spain, in conſequence whereof, the three Cities of the Empire are to be exchang'd for the Dutchy of Barr, and the Dutchy of Lorrain againſt that of Tuſcany.

Count Konigſegg, Preſident of the Aulick Council of War, had lately a long Audience of the Emperor on the Subject of the War againſt the Turks, for which all poſſible Preparations are carrying on with great Vigour.

The Ottoman Troops, who have ſerv'd in Perſia, are all in full march towards Aſoph.

From

From Silesia we are inform'd, that a Fire lately happened in the Village of Peterswalde in the Principality of Schweidnitz, and that the whole Town, consisting of 340 Houses, the Church and Palace, were all burnt to Ashes, and that many Persons perish'd in the Flames.

An Advice-Ship, which arrived the 27th past at Lisbon from Rio de Janeiro, brought an Account of a very hot Engagement that happened in August last, between the Spaniards and the Portuguese, in the Island of the Holy Sacrament, which may widen the Breach between both Nations: They don't tell us the Particulars of this Action, only that 6000 Men were killed on both Sides; that the Portuguese got the better, and had burnt or taken 18 Spanish Barks, and made Prisoner the new Governor of St. Gabriel. 'Tis added, that Advice being come to Rio de Janeiro, that the Spaniards expected a Reinforcement of eight Men of War from Cadiz, Orders were issued there for arming all the Vessels fit for Service, and sending them to the Defence of the Colony of the Holy Sacrament.

The hostile Measures taking by the Turks and the opposite Powers, give us no Room to hope for an Accommodation. In the last Council which the Grand Visier called at Sachocza, a Town situated on the Banks of the Danube, it was resolved to push on the War against the Russians with Vigour; and Orders were dispatched for every thing to be in Readiness for taking the Field. The Seraskier Iliasz Holerak, who assisted at this Council, went to settle some Affairs in his Government, and was afterwards to return to the Army, where he is to command a considerable Body of Troops. As for the Grand Visir, he proposes to spend the Winter at Bahadah. The Russian Ambassador was suffered to return home; which is a Piece of uncommon Moderation in the Turks, whose Custom is to begin with imprisoning the Ambassadors, of those Powers with whom they are at variance.

The Imperialists are no less active in their Preparations. Count Palfi is come back to Vienna, to give the Emperor an Account of his Affairs in Hungary, where all the Regiments are ordered to hold themselves in Readiness to march the first of March; and all the Officers are to be about that time at their respective Posts, upon pain of being broke. The Recruits go on with great Success all over the Hereditary Countries; and every Week some Barks fall down the Danube with Ammunitions of War for the Army in Hungary.

As soon as the Limits of Lorrain are settled, Phillipsburg and Fort Kehl will be delivered up, and Peace proclaimed; for which great Preparations are making at Vienna; and particularly an Amphitheatre, which is almost finished, after the Model of those of ancient Rome, to exhibit a Combat of wild Beasts: Seats are to be fixed all round, one above another, in an oval Form, and an Area in the Middle, where the Animals are to fight: Under the Seats are to be Porticos and Dens, from whence the Beasts are to be let go.

Decem. 23. It has been published with some Confidence, that Baron Neuhoff, with his Secretary Costa, is in London, solliciting Assistance from some private Persons: We may assure the Publick, That a Letter from him came but the latter End of last Week, all of his own Hand-writing, dated at a Publick House in Naples. He mentions in that Letter, how he has gone there to offer the Island of Corsica to his Neapolitan Majesty, if he would but accept of it; of which he was so afraid, that he tried a Method by a Person, as sent by him from Corsica, with a Letter for his Excellency the Count St. Estevan, whom the said Minister ordered to be apprehended, and sent to the publick Jail of that City, as a Reward for his Boldness. We do not doubt but the Baron will do his utmost for the Corsicans, and in case he fails that way, he will very probably take Measures to sell them to the Genoese by some Stratagem or other. He must live, let the Means be as they will. We hear for a Truth that an Agent of his arrived here last Week from Leghorn, and no honest Dealers can take it amiss from us if we caution them of the Risque they will run, in favouring, assisting, or procuring any sort of Provisions, Money, &c. for his Service.

Decemb. 28. In the last Council of War that was held in the Ottoman Army, it was resolved, that all the Tartar Subjects of the Grand Signior, shall make a Diversion on the Side of the Ukrania, while the regular Troops are to be employed in defending the Passage of the Danube. 'Tis however said, That the Grand Visir is not to head the Ottoman Troops, for Reasons of State; but that the Command of them would be left to the Basha Cuprogly, and that Count Bonneval is to serve under him, and the Aga of the Janisaries to be the third Person in Power.

The

The Emperor, knowing what he has to truſt to, has ordered 10,000 Horſes to be purchaſed in the Empire, to remount part of the Imperial Cavalry in Hungary: His Ships in the Adriatick are to be joined by 24 Venetian Men of War, which are ordered to be got ready out of hand for that purpoſe. And for fear the Cauſe ſhould ſuffer for want of Money, his Imperial Majeſty has borrowed 80,000 l. ſterling of Prince Lubomirski, upon the Security of the States of Sileſia, who aſſembled the 13th Inſtant.

The Empire is likely to loſe the famous Count Wutgenau, who ſo bravely defended Philipsburg, againſt the Duke of Berwick; that gallant Officer being ſo very ill of the Dead Palſy at Raab in Bohemia, that his Recovery is almoſt deſpaired of.

We hear that the Princeſs Frederica, eldeſt Siſter to her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, and to his Serene Highneſs the Duke of Saxe-Gotha, is going to be married to a German Prince of the Houſe of Eysbach.

Frankfort, Jan. 2. O. S. We juſt hear that the Imperial Troops quartered in the Briſgaw, Briſach, and at Fribourgh received Orders to march out of thoſe Places the 31ſt inſt. to go and take Poſſeſſion of Philipsburgh and Fort Kehl, which are to be given up before the End of next Month.

Paris, Jan. 6. Letters from Madrid import, that the Catholick King has agreed to ſuſpend all Hoſtilities in the Weſt-Indies againſt Portugal.

LONDON Jan. 4,

Extract of a private Letter from Lisbon, dated Dec. 1. N. S.

As you are curious in examining the News-Papers every Morning, doubtleſs, among other Things, you have read, that the Princeſs of Brazil was brought to Bed of a Daughter: I can now tell you that the ſaid Daughter is chriſten'd by the Name, or rather Names following, Maria, Anna, Franciſca, Tozeſa, Getrudes, Rica, Johanna, a fine Parcel of them! I was a gaping Spectator among the reſt, and had an Opportunity of ſeeing the Royal Family; Age ſeems to have ſtuck his Talons pretty deep into the King and Queen; the King had on a ſhort Robe richly embroidered; and I wiſh (for the Curioſity of the Female Readers) I could deſcribe the Queen's and Princeſs's Dreſs, but that is out of my reach. They reſembled the French Faſhion pretty much, having Hoops ſo large, I believe one might lay a Bale of Goods on each of them; however they were ſo exceeding rich with Jewels, that I could hardly diſtinguiſh any Colour their Gown had, the Diamonds dazzled my Eyes ſo much; their Heads and Breaſts were covered all over with them; and the long Train that each wore had alſo three Rows of Diamonds from the Neck quite down to the End; I ſhould deſire no better an Eſtate than the Queen's Head was worth. The Prince Don Pedro was Godfather by Proxy for the King of Spain, and the Queen of Portugal in Perſon Godmother.

London, Jan. 4. We learn from Leghorn, that ſoon after the Departure of the Lord Theodore from Corſica, the Malecontents of that Iſland held a General Aſſembly, which laſted three Days; that they reſolved therein, to go on with the War at the Hazard of their Lives and Fortunes; and that they publiſhed an Edict to give Notice, that whoever ſo much as makes mention of an Accommodation with the Genoeſe, ſhould be burnt alive, and his Relations to the third Degree have their Throats cut.

Jan. 13. On Tueſday laſt was entred inwards from Dublin, no leſs than Four Hundred Seventy one Thouſand Three Hundred and Six Yards of Iriſh Linnen; a Proof beyond Contradiction how large a Progreſs they have made in the Linnen Manufacture, and how richly they deſerve all ſuitable Encouragement from the Legiſlature.

Jan. 15. On Tueſday laſt the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor received from the Prince a Bank Note for Five Hundred Pounds, being a Preſent which his Royal Highneſs deſires may be applied to the releaſing of poor Freemen out of Priſon.

Jan. 11. We hear his Majeſty ordered 100 Guineas to be given among the two Hundred Men that were ſaved out of the Louiſa Man of War; and that Capt. Bradley and Lieut. Hamilton continued on the Wreck to the laſt; and on being carried aſhore, were preſented to his Majeſty at Helvoetſluys.

Upon the STORM.

Impatient to arrive on Britiſh Land;
The grateful Sea with Wonder and Surprize,
Exalts her much lov'd Monarch to the Skies.
The Winds in dreadful Guſts his Praiſes ſing,
And with united Bluſtrings hail their KING.
What daſtard Soul in ſuch a Storm could fear,
Since the great Ruler of the Sea was there.

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.

And on Sunday laſt, in the Afternoon, the Houſe of Mr. Ralph Aſheton, upon Schuylkil, took Fire in the Roof by Means of a foul Chimney; and there being no Way out on the Top of the Houſe, nor any Ladder, the Fire got to ſuch a Head before Help could be had, that it could not be ſuppreſs'd till it had conſumed the whole Building.
